

Students head to London Palladium

AFTER the success of their recent production Celebration, held at Barnstaple's Queen's Theatre in March, Dancing Feet Academy have been invited to perform at The London Palladium.

The Braunton dancing school has been asked by Ballerina Productions to perform at a charity gala on Sunday, May 25.

One Night Only aims to provide a nostalgic look back at the Sunday Night At The London Palladium variety shows of yesteryear.

There will be 11 students from Dancing Feet Academy performing their jazz/tap routine Mr Pinstripe Suit – choreographed by Nadine Morrish and Gillian Hughes – as well as performing alongside professional dancers in a tribute to the musical Chicago.

Students will also be treated to a class at Pineapple Dance Studios with top West End/Broadway choreographer Molly Molloy, who will also be choreographing the finale of the show.

The night will be headlined by comedian Brian Conley, with performances from six dance schools across the country, as well as ex-Girls Aloud member Kimberley Walsh.

The proceeds of the show will go to The Haven, a charity aimed at supporting breast cancer.
